

June, 2009 Members News

Lisa Pierce, owner of Alpha & Omega Couriers, has received the National NAWBO Woman Business Owner of the Year Award. She will be recognized at the National Women's Business Conference on June 24, 2009.

Sheryl Dougherty, owner of Arizona Tile, has been elected President of Illinois Women in Leadership for the 2009-2010 year.

Michelle Tjelmeland, owner of E-Websmart, received one of the Security's Bank's 2009 Women of Influence awards on May 20, 2009.

Several of our members have been nominated for the Greater Springfield Chamber of Commerce's Small Business Awards. In the category of Business Exceeding $1 million category, nominees from our Chapter are Sheryl Dougherty, owner of The Arizona Tile Company and Connie Matrisch, owner of Pro Com Services of Illinois. Marygael Cullen, owner of Cullen Communication, has been nominated in the Home Based Business category. In the New and Emerging Business category, Kris Salter, owner of KSID Interiors, and Pamela Frazier, owner of All in One Management Services, have been nominated.