

September, 2009 Members News

Robin Loftus of Security Bank is the incoming Chair for the Community Bankers Association of Illinois for the 2009-2010 year. Robin is the first woman chairperson for the association.

Julie Zara, co-owner of Zara Collision Center, announces that Zara Collision has gone "Green". They are using a water borne paint system that is environmentally friendly.

Moon River Designs has moved to a new location at 305 E. Illinois St, New Berlin. Katrina Periman, co-owner of Moon River Designs, also participated in ABC Television's "Extreme Home Makeover" that took place in Philo, Illinois. Katrina did interior signage and photo reproduction. The show will be aired on Sunday, October 25, 2009.

Sharon Rohlf, owner of Naturally You Nails Studio, has moved her business to 2309 West White Oaks Drive. Sharon offers the full spa experience at her nail studio.

For a second time, Susan Day, owner of Exciting Window! By Susan Day, was invited to participate in ABC Television's "Extreme Home Makeover" that took place in Philo, Illinois. The show will be aired on Sunday, October 25, 2009.

Rosie Christy, owner of Nature's Sunshine Get Well Center, attended the NSP National Convention in Las Vegas. She was introduced to 17 new products that she can now offer to her clients.