

The Power of One Vote

- In 1999, Leslie Byrne was elected to the Virginia Senate by 37 votes, less than one vote per precinct.
- Donald Sherwood was elected to the House of Representatives from Pennsylvania by a margin of 515 votes, less than one per precinct making this election the closest House of Representative race in 1998
- Loretta Sanchez was elected to Congress from California by less than 4 votes per precinct in 1996
- John F. Kennedy's margin of victory over Richard Nixon in 1960 was less than one vote per precinct.
- One vote per precinct passed woman suffrage in California in 1911.
- Los Rio Community College Bond Measure failed to get the 662/3 vote needed by 1.7% less than 1 vote per precinct

I'm only one but I am one! I can't do everything, but I can do all things through God who strengthens me.
